

LIRNEasia @ five:
research --> policy --> knowledge-based economies

Speaker bio: Hernan Galperin, PhD

Galperin, Hernan, PhD, is Associate Professor and Director, Center for Technology and Society at the Universidad de San Andrés, Argentina. He is also Steering Committee member for DIRSI, LIRNEasia's sister organization, and Research Fellow at the Annenberg School for Communication at the University of Southern California, USA. An expert on telecommunications policy and development, Galperin leads a number of research projects related to the regulation and development impact of new information and communication technologies in Latin America, funded by a variety of organizations and international donors such as IDRC, ECLAC, USAID and UNDP. He has published extensively in major journals such as Telecommunications Policy, The Information Society and Information Technologies and International Development.