

LIRNEasia @ five:
research --> policy --> knowledge-based economies

Speaker bio: Rasheed Sulaiman

Sulaiman, Rasheed is the Director of Centre for Research on Innovation and Science Policy (CRISP), Hyderabad, and the Regional Director of the LINK South Asia Rural Innovation Policy Studies Hub. Previously he was Senior Scientist at the National Centre for Agricultural Economics and Policy Research, New Delhi, India. The main area of his work relates to issues of institutional change and application of innovation systems framework in agricultural research and extension. He has worked on consultancy assignments with the DFID, Food and Agricultural Organization (FAO), the International Crops Research Institute for Semi-Arid Tropics and the UNU-MERIT. His recent studies have focused on understanding innovation capacity in various rural sectors and institutional reforms in extension.