

Position: Junior Researcher/Researcher

What we do

LIRNEasia (www.lirneasia.net) is a think tank based in Sri Lanka and active across emerging Asia-Pacific. We conduct in-depth, policy-relevant research on infrastructure industries including the ICT/Digital sector. Our work often extends to other areas such as labour, education, agriculture, energy, disability, and poverty. We collect robust data, document regional good practices, and disseminate independent, actionable knowledge, to policy makers, regulators, private sector, and media, with the view of benefitting the poorest citizens in Asia.

We are looking for individuals that are:

- Self-motivated
- Curious and willing to seek knowledge
- Able to work efficiently
- Equally effective both independently, as well as within a team
- Able to write and speak well in English. Any other language will be an advantage
- Able to work with Microsoft office

We offer:

- Competitive remuneration
- Stimulating work environment
- International exposure on regional projects with potential foreign travel

Your responsibilities will include:

- Work on/manage research projects from end-to-end with geographically dispersed teams, adhering to strict timelines
- Deliver high quality research outputs
- Provide intellectual input toward the research alongside senior researchers.
- Summarize findings in oral and written presentations and reports
- Assist senior researchers in proposal writing and business development activities
- Organise and Manage international events and training programs

Skills and Experience

- Bachelor's degree with a minimum 2.1 or a GPA of 3.6 in economics, public policy, international relations, sociology, management, law, computer science, statistics or any other relevant degree
- Minimum 6 months experience in research, consulting, or any other relevant setting
