

Job Title: Junior Researcher (On Site)

Join LIRNEasia, a dynamic and internationally recognized Think Tank, as a Junior Researcher.

What we offer:

Competitive remuneration, international exposure on regional projects with potential foreign travel, a supportive work environment, the opportunity to learn new skills and develop your own brand.

In this role, you will:

- Undertake research at the intersection of economics, technology, and infrastructure
- Work on research projects from end-to-end ensuring high quality outputs, within strict timelines and geographically dispersed teams.
- Provide intellectual input toward the research alongside senior researchers.
- Work with senior researchers to develop high-quality research outputs
- Summarize findings in oral and written presentations and reports
- Assist senior researchers in proposal writing and business development activities
- Organise and manage international events and training programs

What you will need:

Behaviours and Competencies

- A deep interest in research particularly at the intersection of economics, technology, and infrastructure
- Self-motivated with a keenness to learn and develop
- Excellent attention to detail
- Equally effective both independently, as well as within a team
- Comfortable with ambiguity: able to find solutions, without precise instruction on how to get there
- Ability to undertake a wide range and variety of tasks with conflicting deadlines and manage changing priorities

Skills and Experience

- Able to produce excellent, well structured, clear, and concise written work in English
- Strong verbal communication skills in English, any other language will be an advantage
- Able to work with Microsoft office
- Bachelor's degree with a minimum 2.1 or a GPA of 3.6 in economics, public policy, international relations, sociology, management, law, computer science, statistics, or any other relevant degree
- Prior experience in research, consulting, or any other relevant setting will be an advantage

To apply

- Email hr@lirneasia.net on or before 31 Aug 2023
- SUBJECT: Junior Researcher
- Detailed CV (Max four pages with contact details of two non-related references)

What we do

LIRNEasia (www.lirneasia.net) is a think tank based in Sri Lanka and active across emerging Asia-Pacific. We conduct in-depth, policy-relevant research on infrastructure industries including the ICT/Digital sector. Our work often extends to other areas such as labour, education, agriculture, energy, disability, and poverty. We collect robust data, document regional good practices, and disseminate independent, actionable knowledge, to policy makers, regulators, private sector, and media, with the view of benefiting the poorest citizens in Asia.

Please note that LIRNEasia will only contact applicants that have been shortlisted for interviews.
